

Proposed Witchcraft Convictions (Pardons) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to pardon all those convicted under the Witchcraft Act 1563.

The consultation runs from 23 June 2022 to 15 September 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I believe it is vital that we address the wrongdoing committed against all the persons accused of witchcraft,

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

tortured and murdered by the Church and State and grant them, and their ancestors a pardon and some peace.

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

I do think legislation is required. There is still a lingering stigma against the term "Witchcraft" and certainly, within the Church, still much fear-mongering against anyone whom may be different or operate outside Christian values. To have this legislated, and to formally acknowledge the wrongs committed in the past, sets a precedent for how we proceed in the future and not only honours the lives lost, but lives going forward too, whom chose to practise witchcraft, herbalism, spiritualism or walk a nature based path in life...

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

no overall change in costs

Please explain the reasons for your answer.

I can't see any correlation, in this instance.

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

A bill such as this will have a profound impact on the safety, legitimacy, acceptance and future of anyone whom may identify as a witch, or similar. Their beliefs will be acknowledged by law as something which you should not be persecuted for, and I think this is vital.

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

I can't see there would be any negative impacts connected to passing this bill. There could certainly be additional benefits, including tourism and historical tours/information etc - especially linked to existing tourism, even to shows such as Outlander etc. Graves of the pardoned, and areas such as standing stones etc could be used to educate and uphold differences and our ancestral Celtic heritage and ways of life.

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?
