Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to pardon all those convicted under the Witchcraft Act 1563.

The consultation runs from 23 June 2022 to 15 September 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Aim and approach - Note: All answers to the questions in this section may be published (unless your response is "not for publication").

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

The incarcerations, tortures, and executions of accused witches constituted Crimes Against Humanity, and need to be accounted for, with apologies and restitution made to surviving descendants of the accused by agents of both Church and State.

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

I think that legislation is required to register this initiative in the annals of history and governance for posterity and as an example in protecting the Human Rights of the vulnerable.

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

no overall change in costs

Please explain the reasons for your answer.

The impact on taxpayers should be minimal as these are historic abuses and any restitution would involve a very small percentage of the population overall.

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

As the majority of those persecuted and/or executed as witches were women, some were Jews or others considered 'apostate,' and others targeted were those identified as gender fluid or queer, gender, sexual orientation AND religious freedoms and equality would benefit.

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

As environmental and ecological concerns are paramount among contemporary Neo-Pagans, and eco-, cultural-, and historical tourism interest is rising worldwide, this initiative will not only work to protect and enhance the environment through encouraging new cultural enterprise, but it will also help achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations by dignifying the lives and experiences of marginalized and vulnerable communities and individuals that have historically been subjected to institutionalized prejudice and Hate by the forces of both Church and State.

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

This Bill addresses a terrible and glaring historical injustice, the ratification of which is necessary to ensure the futurity of a fair society.
