If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I am one of them...they are us

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

I am not educated enough to be of any real help here. Legislation is one layer of the global repair. Not because something else, better could or will be done that this sociopolitical gesture is not important. People will read about this, just like me. And they will remember. And care. And see the legislation. And say to themselves, wow, things are moving in a direction of recognition. A very beautiful step toward a more loving society, inclusive and engaged at creating better infrastructure to prevent abuse...of any kind...I would need to read more about this.

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

Please explain the reasons for your answer.

The cost....umm...no clue. If I try a twisted lens, the group that started that bill would likely be associated with good virtue. Hoping they are honest with that. I don't even know how that works here. I trust the person that shared this document and signature. She is a smart woman. If she believes that this is good for the land of Scotland, it is good for the land. Cost lost or gain. Is it bringing more sacredness to the land? More unison, more love and respect. Yes? Bringing on!

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

It is playing within many layers...mythical and symbolic too. It is beyond just merely political activism here. It enters people's mind and it can heal or start the moving forward, some of their told inner "imprinted" story

As it is many people still feels that way..being targeted. Sacrificed. Thus, recognition of the past, influence the present, build a new future...One way at least to do something more at scale.

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

My god, I wish I could do better on the fly like this. I would definitely needs few weeks to do a good enough job at this. I can wish though, That I can do! I wish the impact will be deep in the psyche of the the natives, the women there, all the human who have that as their inner generational imprint to see that public move and be sparked into seeing and seeking the help they need to heal and become happy human beings. Yes All that. A good dream.

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

"As a child I felt myself to be alone, and I am still, because I know things and must hint at things which others apparently know nothing of, and for the most part do not want to know. Loneliness does not come from having no people about one, but from being unable to communicate the things that seem important to oneself, or from holding certain views which others find inadmissible." Carl Jung...

Let's do that no more.

Let's help everyone feeling connected and feeling they all are a very beautiful, necessary part of the whole.
