Introduction

The consultation runs from 23 June 2022 to 15 September 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I am opposed to this proposed bill as it is a complete and utter waste of parliamentary time. The past is history and attempting to change that never ends well. Parliament should be concentrating on proposed bills which make everyone's lot in life better now and in the future. There's a cost of living crisis and a climate emergency!

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

This legislation is definitely NOT required. These people it affects have been dead for hundreds of years so they aren't going to care that they have been pardoned.

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

some increase in costs

Please explain the reasons for your answer.

If this is made law, extra civil service jobs will need to be created to carry out investigations into alleged witches. These jobs put demands on the taxpayer and, as I feel the bill is unnecessary, the jobs are unnecessary too.

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

No effect whatsoever

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

This bill will not affect any of these areas directly. However, it even being debated takes away time which could be more productively spent on these areas. If passed into law, it then potentially robs these areas of funding

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

This bill is an absolute nonsense, a waste of parliamentary time which could be used much more productively to improve the lives of the many who are finding life hard at present. I would also respectfully suggest the the MSP proposing this bill be warned for wasting parliamentary time. There must be so many better things that could be done.
