

Proposed Witchcraft Convictions (Pardons) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to pardon all those convicted under the Witchcraft Act 1563.

The consultation runs from 23 June 2022 to 15 September 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Please provide details of a way in which we can contact you if there are queries regarding your response. Email is preferred but you can also provide a postal address or phone number.

We will not publish these details.

Aim and approach - Note: All answers to the questions in this section may be published (unless your response is "not for publication").

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

The bill would call attention to the ongoing misogyny and bigotry that still lingers as an aftereffect of the European and North American witch trials and accusations; Scotland making a major effort along these lines may help bolster continued efforts to address the cultural impact of the witchcraze.

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

Legislation helps to confer legitimacy and permanence to this matter, and having anti-hate laws is necessary in a world where bigotry, fascism and domestic terrorism are on the rise.

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your answer.

It is unclear to me what financial impact might result from the passing of this legislation. Certainly there are many potential benefits to be had from calling attention to bigotry and misogyny.

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Slightly positive

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

As modern pagan witchcraft has been studied and defined by historians and scholars such as Ronald Hutton as a legitimate spiritual endeavor, legislation calling attention to the unfairness of the witchcraft accusations and executions would serve to help protect the religious freedoms of those who refer to their contemporary practice and belief system as witchcraft or other adjacent terms.

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

Many modern witches feel a kinship to nature and consider themselves stewards of the land and environment; lending legitimacy and respect to this modern movement by calling for pardons for those falsely accused of witchcraft centuries ago will underscore the ways in which the cultural definition of witchcraft has evolved to include engagement with modes of conservation, sustainability and care for the natural world.

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

I salute Scotland for its willingness to consider this important and forward-thinking legislation.
