

Proposed Witchcraft Convictions (Pardons) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to pardon all those convicted under the Witchcraft Act 1563.

The consultation runs from 23 June 2022 to 15 September 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

These people did nothing wrong. Some were murdered for having disabilities or red hair.

They were murdered by men who wanted to live in a frightening magical world. Men who were afraid of women. Men who were afraid of kindness, beauty and the power that it brings.

These men wished to indoctrinate their religion and destroy anyone else's right to practice their own faith. It was also a deeply chauvinist affair. As men died, 10 women would die for every one man.

It was an annihilation of any woman who dared to be strong.

These murders attempted to destroy our links to our ancestry. To wipe out whole lines of great families who had held this land safe. An attempt to steal what was not theirs to own.

It was a great evil that scarred the land and people who were forced to stand by and watch in fear while innocent people who had healed them, held them or just been in the wrong place at the wrong time were burned alive. They made murderers of us all.

This must be cleaned up. This is a mess we must fix. It is a horror. A public ritual sacrifice. It is not Christian. It was not holy. It was the most filthy of evil.

We do not want to hold this within the National consciousness. Correct this evil. The heart of our nation must now determine goodness and a power of spirit. In order to do this the dark history that has come before must be seen recognised and understood not to be a creepy funny thing, but that there was a genocide on powerful and good people. On kind people. On loving people who chose their way of life that reached back through their family's history.

If you truly love our country our future needs the highest good of all. Pardoning these women and men is right and will bring great benefit and great good.

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

Yes. All people need protection. Our ancestors need protection also. I would also like to see more protection of religious freedom with an eye fixed on the bigotry that exists in Scotland. This genocide must not happen again.

Financial Implications

Q3. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

Unsure

Equalities

Q4. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response including the impact on people with particular protected characteristics

We will be showing respect to women and men who have died.

Sustainability

Q5. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

I would hope it will stand as a record of the suffering of the innocent and we will never let this happen again.

General

Q6. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

The destiny of our country is written in the way we respect our elders. These people went through the highest disrespect. Their destiny was ripped away from them. This needs correcting.
